ARE STILL VOTING

ILLINOIS REPUBLICANS HAVE NOT NOMINATED GOVERNOR.

OTHER CONVENTIONS

W. J. Bryan the Central Figure in the Nebraska Convention.—The Hearst People Will Not Control in Georgia.

Omaha, Neb., June 1.—Notwithstanding the opposition on the part of many prominent Nebraska Democrats to the leadership of William J. Bryan, it is probable that the Democratic state convention in session here today will act in accordance with the wishes of Mr. Bryan and in support of the Kansas City platform. The work of the convention is confined to the selection of delegates to St. Louis. The nominating convention will be held at Lincoln later in the summer.

Nearly all of the 1,059 delegates to the Democratic state convention arrived on the early morning trains and the caucuses and district conventions were held early. W. J. Bryan, to whom everybody looked as the central figure of the convention did not arrive until noon. Former Supreme Justice Sullivan announced his recent endorsement for the vice presidential nomination by the party in Nebraska was unauthorized and stated that he would withdraw his name should it be presented to the convention. The convention is hardly expected to divide on any question, the contest being for delegates at large, three of whom, W. J. Bryan, C. J. Smyth and W. H. Thompson, of Grand Island the last Democratic candidate for governor, were practically settled upon before the convention was called to order.

Springfield, Ill., June 1.—Before the Republican state convention convened this morning there was no definite prospect of an end to the gubernatorial deadlock. Predictions were made that Lowden would make an assault on the Yates column in the hope of getting at least 100 of the Yates delegates, in the belief he would then get enough other votes to nominate. The Yates and Deneen men declare that such an attempted coup would fail. The Lowden boomers were the most active and profuse on the ground.

The sixty-second ballot taken today showed no material change. A resolution for a secret ballot was offered. A Yates man moved its reference to the committee on resolutions, and a Deneen man seconded the motion. The resolution was referred by a vote of 1,224 to 278.

Atlanta, Ga., June 1.—The Democratic state convention met today to name delegates to the national convention at St. Louis. The Hearst element, while influential, it is said, is not strong enough to have a deciding vote in the final results of the convention.

THE BIG SALE CONTINUES.

Judging From the Crowds There it Will Not Last Sixty Days.

When Phil Denitz of the Famous store came here from Amarillo and said that he was going to close out the stock of the Famous store in this city he meant just exactly what he said. He said, "Everything must be out of this house in sixty days, or it will be shipped out."

Judging from the way the people are crowding this popular trading place there will not be anything left to ship out in that length of time, or even less than sixty days.

Mr. Denitz is here to personally conduct this closing out sale, and the store has been crowded with busy shoppers laying in supplies for several months, as Denitz makes the plain honest statement to them that one American dollar at the Famous will now do the work that ordinarily two will do. This is not one of the many fake sales, where so and so is offered at a certain price at certain hours during the day.

It is a sale where you can buy bargains as soon as you can find a salesman to wait on you. Be a good idea to call around early in the morning before the crowd gets too large. Extra salesmen and saleswomen have been added to the force, but it will facilitate your service to call early and you will have more time to make your selections.

A STRIKE IN OHIO.

Trouble in Furnaces of Hanging Rock District.—Militia Sent.

Columbus, O., June 1.—Four companies of militia were today ordered to proceed to Hanging Rock, near fronton, on the Ohio river. Col. A. C. Thompson is in command. The trouble in the furnaces in the Hanging Rock district is due to an attempt to supply the places of strikers with non-union men, many of the latter being colored. For some days both sides have been heavily armed and several collisions have occurred, but few casualties.

SEEKING FRENCH HELP.

Believed That France Can Secure Release of Captives From Morocco Bandits.

Washington, May 31.—Through Ambassador Porter, Secretary Hay has requested the French government to exercise its good offices towards securing the release of Perdicaris, the kidnapped American in Morocco. The French government has undertaken the task, and it is believed that it can accomplish more than any other government because of its close association with the various elements of Morocco. The British government is also taking vigorous steps for the rescue of young Varley, the stepson of Perdicaris and a British subject. The officials of the British are acting in connection with the United States government in the pursuit.

Two More Wells.

John R. Hodges, of Artesia was in the city yesterday and left last evening for his home. He reports that the work on his Artesia well 1½ miles southwest of Artesia is progressing rapidly. The well is now down 375 feet, and that they expect to go down about 1,000 feet before the big flow is struck. The well is being drilled by the Corsicana Well Drilling Company, and they will have to pay straight $2 per foot when the well is completed.

The well will irrigate 320 acres of land. His property adjoins that of E. F. Hardwicke of this city, who is also having a well drilled. His well is down 700 feet, and he is expecting to strike the big flow at any time.

WORLD'S PEACE THEIR AIM.

Long to See Arbitration Succeed War in Settling Disputes.

Lake Mahonk, N. Y., June 1.—Drawn together by their common desire to see arbitration succeed war as a means of settling disputes between nations, some 200 men and women—educators, jurists, diplomats, statesmen and business men—have gathered here for the tenth annual conference on international arbitration. The visitors are the guests of Albert K. Smiley, a wealthy Quaker who inaugurated the series of conferences ten years ago and who has devoted a great part of his time and fortune to the promotion of peace.

The conference is fortunate in having as its presiding officer Judge George Gray of Delaware, who is one of the four United States representatives on the bench of the Hague tribunal, and whose experience as a member of the Paris Peace Commission of 1898, the Anthracite Strike Commission of 1903 and other important arbitral bodies has given him a wide and varied knowledge of arbitral procedure.

Other notable men who will be heard during the three days' session are Judge William L. Penfield, of the state department at Washington, who will speak on the Venezuelan case at the Hague court; Commissioner McFarland, of the District of Columbia, who is down for an address on the significance of the present agitation in favor of an arbitration treaty with Great Britain, and Charles M. Pepper, special commissioner appointed by the government on the Pan-American railway project, who will speak on that enterprise to the promotion of peace and good will among the nations of the western hemisphere.

These three are among those who have prepared set addresses, but there are many other men of note who are expected to take a part in the conference discussions. Among the number are Don M. Dickinson of Michigan, Professors John Bassett Moore and James Brown Scott of Columbia University, Assistant Secretary of State Francis B. Loomis, Justice David J. Brewer of the United States Supreme Court, General Stewart L. Woodford, President Warfield of Lafayette College, General O. O. Howard, Edward Everett Hale, Judge Charles B. Elliott of Minneapolis, Congressman George W. Smith of Illinois, Congressman C. E. Littlefield of Maine, Congressman Robert F. Broussard of Louisiana, and Congressman T. E. Burton of Ohio.

Arrange for G. O. P. Convention. Chicago, Ill., June 1.—The members of the sub-committee of the Republican national committee rounded up here today to give further consideration to the arrangements for the Republican national convention which will meet in Chicago three weeks hence. After looking over the arrangements made by the local committee, inspecting the seating arrangements in the Coliseum and the plans for the disposition of tickets for delegates, alternates, press reporters and the general public, the sub-committee will adjourn to meet again June 15 to complete all arrangements.

Charles Whiteman has heard from his brother, Lincoln Whiteman, who left several weeks ago for an extended trip to eastern cities. He is now in Washington, D. C. at present and will go from there to Philadelphia, New York City and Boston, and will then return home. He has already visited the World's Fair and Chicago. When he returns Charles Whiteman will take an extended trip to different parts of the Union.

Weds Daughter of Senator Stone. Jefferson City, Mo., June 1.—Miss Mildred Stone, daughter of United States Senator and Mrs. William J. Stone, was married here today to John G. Parkinson, a prominent young lawyer and politician of St. Joseph. The ceremony was performed in the First Presbyterian church in the presence of a large number of guests.

Retirement of Admiral Johnson. Washington, D. C., June 1.—Rear Admiral Mortimer L. Johnson was placed on the retired list today by operation of the age limit. He is succeeded in the command of the Charleston navy yard by Captain G. F. F. Wilde, late commandant of the navy yard at League Island.

"You know it."

Good posing, a pleasing likeness, fine finish, and a suitable mounting are the points which make an artistic photograph, which you can secure at Frost & Walton's.

Avery Turner is in the city with his special car. He did not have anything new to say in regard to the new depot here.

Milo D. Warfle, the Seventh Day Adventist preacher, has returned to the city after spending a month at Elida, where he conducted a very successful series of meetings. He will leave in a short time for other points in the Territory to conduct protracted meetings.

Bert Robey who has been in the city as the guest of J. R. Burton, left this morning for his home at Portales. He is the editor of the Portales Herald. He says the big well at Portales is 390 feet deep and the water flows to the top of same. He is also interested in the artificial stone factory that is being installed at Artesia.

E. N. Heath, who owns one of the big wells near Artesia, was in the city yesterday. When he came to the Valley just as the town of Artesia was first started about one year ago, he was a man of moderate means. Since being in Artesia he has struck it lucky, or made judicious investment, and today he is independent.

Thomas M. Waller of McMillan, arrived in the city this morning.

RUSSIANS LOSE AGAIN

REPORTED THAT GEN. KUROPATKIN IS DEFEATED.

INTERNAL DISORDERS

Russian Minister of Foreign Affairs is Assaulted by Disappointed Office Seeker.—Gloomy Condition of Affairs Reported in the Russian Army.

London, June 1.—A special from Rome says a telegram received there from Tokio says that General Kuropatkin has completely defeated General Kurapatkin near Sumentz, (probably Simatsi or Saimattza). All the Russian positions east of Hai Cheng have been abandoned, according to this telegram, several guns taken by the Japanese and a whole squadron of Cossacks captured. Possibly this dispatch refers to the fighting reported in last night's Associated Press from Liao Yang and St. Petersburg. These reports did not indicate a general engagement, but showed sharp engagements taking place east of Simatzi, lasting from the morning of May 27 until daylight May 30, which resulted in severe losses on both sides and the retirement of the Russians upon Simatzi. The latter place is 35 miles north of Feng Wang Cheng.

St. Petersburg, June 1.—The reports of an attack upon Count Lamsdorff, minister of foreign affairs, which grew last night into a rumor (later denied) of an attempted assassination, have their foundation, as nearly as can be ascertained, in a personal attack committed Monday by Prince Dolgoruky, a disappointed office seeker. The Prince is an opponent of Count Lamsdorff's policy and is said to have become insane through brooding over alleged grievances. According to the story current, the Prince met Count Lamsdorff on the street Monday evening and without warning struck him on the head with a stick. The Prince was arrested.

An unconfirmed rumor from Mukden says the Japanese battleship Fuji is aground on the reef off Miao Tao islands between Kwan Tung and Shan Tung promontories, where she is being guarded by torpedo boats.

Tien Tsin, June 1.—A courier who arrived from New Chwang, says: "While it is known that the Russians received reports from Mukden last night giving the losses sustained by them during the fight at Kin Chou and Naushan hill and the conditions prevailing, they will not talk on the subject. The officers are desperately gloomy. The press bulletin giving the news of fighting on Kwang Tung peninsula with European comments on the victory of the Japanese, was suppressed on its arrival at New Chwang but was released when the Russians learned that two copies of it were in possession of Englishmen and were being shown to other people. Six hundred junk loads of supplies, mostly beans and grain purchased at New Chwang were shipped to Liao Yang yesterday. The Russians were compelled to pay four times the prices demanded a month ago.

Seoul, June 1.—The Russian bands scattered throughout Ham Hueng province are encountering commissary difficulties. The countryside is ill supplied with food and forage, owing to the bad crops of the past two years. Since the first Russian raid there has been no trade at Yensan and Songjin, and consequently no importation of food stuffs. The Russian movements in Korea have caused widespread starvation, and they are now experiencing the same difficulties in getting food.

Liao Yang, (Monday) May 30.—The Japanese lost two hundred killed and a number of horses in a fight at Vegen Fuchau today. The Russians opened fire at eight in the morning, and after two and a half hours fight at long range, the Japanese under General Akkama charged. The Russian batteries opened fire and soon compelled the enemy to retire.
